For more detail see Annexure- A and issued admit card for more detail.

Note:

1. There will be separate question paper of each group, where maximum two group CBT will be held in one shift as per scheme of examination.
2. For candidate who have applied in more than one group maximum two paper will be held in one shift. Question paper as per scheme of examination will be visible one after other. Such candidate may be required to appear in multiple shifts on multiple days as per application to various groups.
3. Separate admit card will be issued for each shift for scheduled examinations as per Annexure- A. Candidate is required to bring admit card of respective shift with valid ID proof on examination centre. Read detailed instruction given in admit card.
4. At the best effort, the same examination centre has been allotted for common candidates (candidates applied in more than one group post) for all examinations; however, in some cases, candidates will be allotted different examination centres but within the same state.
5. If any candidate found trying to appear in examination by providing false information such as false PWBD status to evade fees, false category and qualification criteria will be treated malpractice and use of unfair means and suitable action will be taken including cancellation of candidature and other penal action as per rules.

6. Admit card will be issued provisionally based on information provided in the application form without any scrutiny of eligibility criteria, category, experience, etc., just to allow to appear in the Examination. Candidature will be cancelled if any discrepancy at any stage, as per published advertisement, notices on the website.
7. The Admit Card must be downloaded from www.aiimsexams.ac.in using your login credentials on My Page using the [<https://rrp.aiimsexams.ac.in/>] link through the Recruitment tab. No hard copy will be sent to you by post.
8. Print TWO copies of the Admit Card (Full page with all content) for each shift of time, different dates & times of the scheduled examination: One copy is required for the Examination, and the other is to be preserved for the other formalities should you be selected.
9. In view of applications for multiple posts by a large number of candidates, a candidate may be required to appear in more than one shift. Hence, all candidates are required to check their admit card for the exact date and time of examination and report as per reporting time mentioned in the admit card.
10. Changes in centre, time, date, etc., are not allowed under any circumstance, and any request/representation in this regard will not be entertained.
11. It is expected that a candidate should not be involved in unfair practices in the interest of the smooth conduct of the examination.

Biometric Verification

The biometric of each candidate will be verified before entering in the Examination Centre on the day of examination.

Case 1: Those candidates who have opted Aadhar based authentication (Aadhar Enabled- Yes) at the time of online registration, such candidates will be allowed to enter in the examination Centre after Aadhar authentication.

Case 2: Those candidates who have not opted Aadhar based authentication (Aadhar Enabled- No) at the time of online registration such candidates are required to bring their original identity Proof preferably Aadhar Card and these candidates will be allowed to enter in the examination centre after Capturing/verifying their biometric.

Note: In both cases the candidates are required to bring their Original Identity proof on the day of examination. Entry will not be allowed without original ID proof and Admit card of the same shift. Any discrepancy in original ID proof than submitted information will lead to denial from entry to examination centre.
